Team M&M Superstar(s)

Hello to all District and Auxiliary President and members. Department President VaNette has asked me to chair the District/Auxiliary of the Year program for the 2023-2024 year.

The Goal of "Auxiliary and District of the Year " contest is to motivate all of our members to get and stay involved in supporting and promoting our National and Department programs that support our veterans and our communities.

The objective is to focus on how you and your Auxiliaries serve the Veterans in our Communities, as well as, their families and our active-duty military. The objective is NOT how many reports you send. We want to encourage all Auxiliary members to participate in all Department, District, and local Auxiliary sponsored functions and events including, but not limited to the Department School of Instruction, Membership Growth, and Mentoring.

Currently, your Auxiliary may only have a few active members. But the more we encourage our Auxiliary members to attend meetings and events and get excited about the VFW Auxiliary programs and the Veterans we serve, the more they will learn and share with other members. If you plan to attend functions, encourage a group of members to carpool together. We want to encourage attendance at all events. We are the best-kept secret and we want the World to know what we do! The more the merrier! One of the best parts about attending the Auxiliary, District and Department functions is the opportunity to network. When networking, you are able to bounce ideas off others and find out what has or hasn't worked for them and their auxiliary. Networking also allows us to find out how other people are overcoming the challenges that we may share in our local auxiliaries. I want you all to strive to be a Team M&M Superstar!

Please feel free to call or e-mail me with questions:
