DEPARTMENT OF MARYLAND VFW Auxiliary Department Chaplain Message

Summary of the Duties and responsibilities of the Chaplain shall include:

Provide aid to members and their families in time of need. Offer the ritual prayers at each meeting of the Auxiliary; also offer appropriate prayers at the initiation of new members, installation of officers, or at the memorial service of a member.

The Chaplain shall perform such duties in connection with their office as the Ritual may prescribe or the President may require. (Refer to Article VII, Sec. 817)

Auxiliary Chaplain

- Perform the opening and closing prayer at all meetings and events.
- Present the names of those who are sick, deceased, etc., at your meetings.
- Call and make visits to those sick, on behalf of the Auxiliary.
- May send “Thinking of You”, “Sympathy”, “Get-Well” cards, or flowers, in accordance with the Auxiliary’s Standing Rules.
- Notify the Department Chaplain of urgent prayers or anyone in the Auxiliary that is sick, having Birthdays, Anniversaries, Weddings, New Births, or anything else where a “Congratulations” and “Thinking of You” is in order.
- Report what cards were sent and if any deceased members at your Auxiliary meeting. This may be done by the Veterans & Family Support Chairman.
- Prepare for the Memorial Service, if the Auxiliary is to have one. A list of deceased members may be obtained by the Auxiliary Treasurer in MALTA.
- Prepare and contact the Auxiliary members, if a Memorial Service is to be performed, at a funeral home or given location.
- Always be prepared with the items needed to perform the Memorial Service for deceased Auxiliary members.

District Chaplain

- Perform the opening and closing prayer at all meetings and events.
- Announce number of cards or flowers, etc., at your meetings.
- May send “Thinking of You”, “Sympathy”, “Get-Well” cards, or flowers, in accordance with the District’s Standing Rules.
- Prepare for the Memorial Service if the District is to have one. A list of deceased members may be obtained by the District Treasurer in MALTA.
- Always be prepared with the items needed to perform the Memorial Service for deceased Auxiliary members.
- Educate the Auxiliaries in the duties as the Chaplain, if necessary.
