Youth Activities Command Briefing

Transmission from HQ

Greetings, Young Padawans and Jedi Mentors,
As we enter Galactic Cycle 9, the academic hyperspace lanes reopen—school is back in session! This month, we celebrate National Read a Book Day on the 6th. Let's encourage youth to explore new worlds through reading, whether it's the story of a brave Rebel or a real-life hero in uniform.

Mission Protocol Reminder:

When submitting Youth Activity reports, all data fields must be completed. Blank sections will be marked as “no activity.” Only submit reports when actual youth engagement has occurred. Incomplete transmissions will not be accepted by the Council.

In honor of POW/MIA Recognition Day, share this powerful story with youth. Like the Jedi memorials on Alderaan, the White Table is a solemn tribute to those who gave everything for peace and freedom.
